Meet the man behind the board games: Milton Bradley. Born in Maine in 1836, Milton Bradley moved with his family to the working-class city of Lowell, Massachusetts, at age 11. His early life consisted of several highs and lows, from graduating high school and attending Harvard to getting laid off and losing his first wife. These experiences gave Bradley the idea for his first board game: The Checkered Game of Life. He produced and sold Life across the country and it quickly became a national sensation. Working with his company, the Milton Bradley

No more dice to lose, and it can go anywhere: everybody's a winner with this addictive new book! Just as with Hasbro's real YAHTZEE game, players get to "roll" five dice three times to find their highest score. But instead of throwing actual dice, they scratch them off the page, lottery-style--and keep only the dice they want as they go for better combinations with their remaining rolls. With multiple copies of
